Office of Legislative Counsel

Tuesday -- 14 July 1953

1. Mr. Dulles and Mr. Houston met with Senators McCarthy, Mundt and Potter, of the Senate Investigating Subcommittee, and reached certain basic agreements concerning relations between CIA and the Committee. Previous to this meeting, Mr. Houston worked on preliminary drafts of the agreement with the DCI, Mr. Rogers, Deputy Attorney General, and Mr. Flanagan, Committee Counsel.

2. Mr. Wilcox, of the Office of Congressman Lantaff (D., Fla.), called to state that the Congressman was considering a radio broadcast (recorded) with representatives of various agencies that had experience in dealing with crackpots and some agency experiences in such matters. I told Mr. Wilcox that I was sure the Congressman would understand our reluctance to engage in such matters and would excuse us.
